Many Candidates Entering March Election Campaign

Keenan Serves Two Committees

The Speaker of the House of Representatives, Thomas P. O'Neill Jr., appointed Representative Henry E. Keenan of Arlington to the Committee on Metropolitan Affairs. This is a committee that Representative Keenan served on at the last session. This committee passes on all legislation affecting the Metropolitan District Commission and the Metropolitan Transit Authority System. The other appointment is to the Committee on Towns. This is the Committee before which legislation affecting towns of the Commonwealth must be presented. This year petitions are before the Committee relative to a change in the form of town government in several of the towns in the state. Several petitions have been presented for a change to some form of Town Manager. Included is a petition to have a uniform Town Manager Act set forth by the Legislature as a standard, act for the Town Manager form of government. If Arlington, in the coming March meeting, acts upon some form of a change in the structure of our town government, the action of the town meeting will be referred to the Committee on Towns.

At the last term of the Legislature, Representative Keenan served on the Committee on Election Laws. He is currently serving on the Committee on Civilian Defense for the State. He has the background of active participation in town affairs, being a former member of the Finance Committee and also a Town Meeting Member.

Accidents At Safety Island Injure Trio

Early Sunday morning, the safety island at Lake St., claimed its second and third victims of the year. Last year 47 people required hospitalization resulting from 21 accidents at this edifice.

In the first accident at the island, three youths were rushed to Symmes Arlington hospital after their Cadillac sedan smashed head-on into the inbound island.

Walter A. Netto Jr., 17, of 6 Hillside terr., Belmont, driver of the car was held at the Symmes Arlington hospital after being treated for lacerations of the face and mouth and loss of a number of teeth.

Gordon R. Higley, 17, of 11 Village Lane, Arlington a passenger in the front seat was placed on the danger list at the hospital following treatment for a concussion, lacerations and abrasions of the face and a possible broken right arm.

Nelson Dean, 16, of 314 Cross st.,

Belmont was treated for a fractured nose.

The car was a total wreck, the front-end having been almost cut in two by the impact. Both Netto and Higley were thrown from the car to the street at the time of collision.

About an hour after the first accident another car, proceeding towards Cambridge, struck the island whose lights had been extinguished by the first crash.

James A. Barnvakeo, 178 Brighton ave., Allston, was rushed to Symmes Arlington hospital in the police ambulance where he was treated for lacerations and abrasions of the face and jaw, the left foot and possible fractured elbow.

Officer James Casali, on the scene shortly after both accidents, called the ambulance and handled the injured, assisted by officers Bill Scanlon, George Alexie and Arthur Guarente.

Glynn A Candidate For Town Planning Board

Frederick Stanley Glynn, well known local civil engineer, announced on Tuesday that he has taken out papers as a candidate for the Planning Board.

At present Mr. Glynn is the only announced candidate for the vacancy on this board.

Mr. Glynn is a member of the Town Manager Committee which will make a recommendation to the Town Meeting in March, and which conducted a meeting with Arlington residents last evening. Mr. Glynn introduced the original town manager act last Fall.

A native of Cambridge, he has made his home in Arlington for many years. A graduate of Harvard College, he is registered as a civil engineer with the state board, and has been affiliated with Stone and Webster for the past 15 years.

Mr. Glynn is a town meeting member, has been very active in community affairs, and is a member of several local organizations. "The planning board is a progressive board," he stated today, "and it's work is in line with my profession. I feel that I can be of very definite service to the board, and through it, to the town of Arlington."

Wm. McKeever Files For Housing Authority Post

William J. McKeever, well known Veteran's Administration executive and past Commander of the Arlington American Legion Post, this week, took out nomination papers for the Veterans Housing Authority vacancy created by the resignation of Harold Magnusen, town Moderator. The unexpired term which runs until 1953 will be filled at the general town election in March.

Mr. McKeever has broad experience in the field of public housing, having worked in various districts throughout the state, and advancing to Supervisor of the Lawrence District of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation where he supervised 2299 accounts with a monthly billing of $60,000 and a personnel of four field representatives and three clerks.

Of particular importance is the fact that the Home Owners' Loan Corporation was the largest undertaking ever conceived in the field of home mortgage refinancing. As one of its district supervisors, Mr. McKeever had to be experienced in screening applicants to determine in which cases there was some dire distress existing on the part of the mortgagors.

As a result of Mr. McKeever's activity with this government sponsored aid to home owners, he has gained a vast knowledge of every phase of the mortgage banking business; familiarity with real estate and rental values, building

Largest Draft Call Since World War II Takes 56 Men

Three Injured In First 1951 Car Accident

Three sailors stationed aboard the Cruiser Des Moines at the Boston Navy yard were injured in the first accident of the year, Thursday night.

George R. Webb, 20, 326 1st st., Davenport Iowa, a passenger in the car which struck the outbound island at Lake st., was treated for lacerations of the nose, neck and injuries to his left arm and wrist at the Symmes Arlington hospital.

Raymond Wenzel, driver of the car was treated for lacerations of the face and forehead and Edward Bender 20, of Cape Charles Va., suffered injuries to his head.

The driver told police he fell asleep at the wheel and hit the safety island head-on.

Every Doctor, Dentist And Veterinarian Under 50 To Register On January 15th

Fourteen Arlington men were among the fifty-six draftees who left yesterday morning for military training. This was the largest group to leave since the draft calls of World War II.

The February list is now being formed, the government having again asked this area for fifty-six men. Draft Board officials report they are preparing a list which is composed almost exclusively of 20 year old youths.

The date they are to leave has not been announced and the list of names will not be released until after the men have left, in accordance with a ruling laid down by State selective service officials.

This next call will scrape the bottom of the barrel of almost all local boards. The draft law, as it now stands allows the boards only to take men between the ages of 19-25. A new law is now before Congress, for action, allowing the drafting of men between the ages of 18-28. It is expected this law will be passed within the week.

All male doctors, Dentists and Veterinarians, who are not registered in the selective service system, and are under 50 years of age are warned by the selective service board that they must register on the special registration day, Monday, January 15th.

Registration will take place at the Local Draft Board, top floor of the Robbins House, behind the library between 8 am and 5pm on at one of the classes.

She is Miss Cordelia Anton of the New England Hospital for Women and Children.

Her story is one that included life behind the Iron Curtain.

She became a Nurse's Aide in 1943 and after completing that training took nursing courses and became a nurse.

Then daughter of a couple born in Czechoslovakia, she went to the homeland of her parents in 1948 with the desire to advance nursing practices there.

Working in many hospitals and clinics in that country, she was there during a period of many po-liberties being deprived to those people.

At the time she was the only
American nurse in Czechoslovakia.

Lawyers Fight Old Age Laws

In an effort to have the Old Age Assistance referendum which was approved by the voters at the November election declared unconstitutional, a group of the State's leading lawyers, headed by Samuel P. Sears of Newton, president of the Massachusetts Bar Association, this week filed a petition for hearing before the Supreme Judicial Court.

The petition would be in the form of a plea for a writ of mandamus which would forbid welfare Commissioner Patrick A. Tompkins from authorizing payments under the new statute and State Treasurer John E. Hurley from making such payments.

While as a matter of formality these two officials are respondents, the action in reality is against Attorney General Francis E. Kelly whose official acts in approving the referendum and the summary statement which appeared on the ballot are sharply attacked. Under usual procedure, Kelly's office would supply counsel for both Tompkins and Hurley. In this case Kelly or an associate will be pleading in defense of the Attorney General who has been noteworthy during his political career for advocacy of pensions even more liberal than benefits provided by the referendum law.

The petitioners contend that: 1. The summary of the referendum as it appeared on the petition and on the ballot was illegal and void because it did not inform either signers of the petition or the voters of the several major elements appearing in the statute.

The elements are: The age for old age assistance was changed from 65 to 63 years; the minimum rate of assistance was substantially increased; the measure did not conform with the federal social security law and probably precludes all federal reimbursements for the age group 63 to 65; the measure eliminates all contributions by the cities and towns of the Commonwealth; it no longer provides for the approval of rules and regulations of the Public Welfare Department by the Governor and Council.

Also the measure completely relieves adult children from any obligation to support their parents; it contains no information regarding its cost, and several other technical issues of serious implication both to the Commonwealth and its people as well as applicants and recipients of old age assistance.

2. The certificate of the Attorney General that the measure and the filing thereof were in proper form was mistaken and unconstitutional for three reasons. They are: The referendum substantially the same and actually identical in several respects with the referendum voted upon by the people in 1946; it violates the financial structure of the state and attacks prerogatives of the Governor and General Court and contains certain "excluded matters" under the constitution.

3. Mandatory provisions contained in the new statute invade and interfere with the Constitutional right of the Governor and General Court to supervise fiscal affairs of the Commonwealth.

4. The petition was illegal because of the failure of the House and Senate to vote on the question as required by Article 48 of the Constitution.

"Your petitioners believe and therefore aver that because of the facts hereinbefore alleged the initiative petition was illegal, the certificate and summary of the Attorney General was illegal, the signature blank issued by the Secretary was illegal, the transmission of the measure to the General Court was illegal, the failure of the two houses to vote was illegal, the measure was illegally placed upon the ballot and the popular vote on the measure was illegal and void and the measure no constitutional authority for the respondent Treasurer and Receiver General to pay any money under this "measure" to reimburse the cities and towns and no legal authority for the respondent Commissioner or the department of which he is the head to act, and be legal authority to the cities and towns to expend money under this measure, for the purposes therein specified or to rely on reimbursement from the Commonwealth for any such expenditures."

In making the announcement, Mr. Sears said: "The petitioners believe that the questions raised in the petition involve the future safety and solvency of the Commonwealth."

Added Care In Night Driving

When the sun goes down, down go the driver's odds on reaching home safely. The Street and Traffic Safety Lighting Bureau warns drivers and pedestrians.

In January, particularly, the driver is faced with the prospect of more night driving, less daylight driving. About 14 hours of the average January day are hours of darkness, and these hours include the peak hours of traffic.

Statistical studies by the Street and Traffic Safety Lighting Bureau shows that almost 2 out of 3 fatal accidents occur between the hours of 5:00 pm and 8:00 pm. In January, this time is almost entirely hours of darkness.

In January 1949, 560 pedestrians lost their lives in our cities and towns. The driver's inability to see because of poor or inadequate street lighting was a major factor in these deaths, the Bureau says.

tenance work, and general clean-up work if such work is performed on the surface. Where higher standards of employment are set by other Federal, State or municipal laws, such higher standards must be followed."

Keenan Speaker At Mystic-Side Association

Representative Henry E. Keenan was the guest speaker at the annual meeting of the Mystic-Side Improvement Association. He was introduced to the members of the Association by Archie Lovys, an active member of this organization and a former member of the Arlington Finance Committee.

Representative Keenan discussed several matters coming before the current session of the Legislature affecting traffic and improvements affecting the town of Arlington.

He touched upon the need for legislation that was filed by him last term and filed by him again this term calling for the extension of the Cambridge subway from Harvard Square underground to Porter Square and over to a terminal to be built on the Metropolitan District Commission and just off the Concord Turnpike in North Cambridge, in the vicinity of the Bowdlerdome near the Arlington-Cambridge line. He contended that this extension will make it possible to open up Mass. ave from the Lexington line to Harvard Square as a broad highway to eliminate the dangerous safety islands along the avenue.

This would eliminate street cars from the Avenue, cutting down noise and congestion and would increase real estate values along the whole Massachusetts Avenue from Lexington to Harvard sq. increasing the value of the whole area as a shopping and business avenue. Busses running from the proposed terminal would better serve the commuters of this entire area and give quicker and safer service than that which the present systems offers to the public.

He again expressed his views on being opposed to the Arlington Center Plan until Route 128 is in operation through traffic around Arlington are given a fair trial before embarking upon an expensive program of land takings to build new streets.

Representative Keenan also explained his bill on Temporary Minor Repairs, that was enacted into permissive legislation and will be acted upon by this town in the coming March meeting.

During the question and answer period, Representative Keenan touched upon several other matters that were before the Legislature last year as well as those that are coming before this year's session.

Hockey Team Winner Over Rindge 4-1

A sparkling Arlington High school hockey team rolled into undisputed third place in the G. B. I. league Saturday, defeating their third place rival Rindge, 4 to 1 before 2314 howling fans.

The Burns men, playing their best hockey of the year, dumped a powerful Rindge squad into 4th place, taking over third, with Cambridge Latin and Melrose tied for the lead.

Melrose and Latin held their tie, both winning, Saturday's tilts. Melrose downed Newton, 5 to 2, and Latin knocked off Medford, 4 to 1.

The Arlington Rindge battle was the feature of the day, both squads battling to stay in the race at the season's half-way mark.

The only other game at the arena Saturday saw Stoneham upset Belmont, 2 to 1, placing them sixth in the league standings. Bill Vassill, was star of the day for the Spy Ponders, scoring two goals, one after the other, in the second period.

ARLINGTON TAKES LEAD

The first period opened with a see-saw battle raging between the two third place teams, Arlington

Aces Lose Again

"The public loves a winner, but the world loves a good loser."

The Arlington Aces went down to their third straight defeat of the season, Friday night, this time at the hands of the Park Ave. club by the close score, 48-15.

The Aces highpoint getter was E. Z. Ed Zwickler with six markers. Paul Doherty of Park Ave., sunk a mere 28 points.

Tomorrow night the Aces will meet their cousins, St. James in a battle for the cellar. The Aces might win if St. James' Boys don't show up.

In against the four Rindge men scoring at 8:36 unassisted. Arlington pressed its advantage keeping the puck in the enemy's territory, Vassill scoring again at 9:03 with Coolidge assisting.

Jim Duffy of Rindge was charged with misconduct and holding and given two minutes in the box. Following him was Hamilton, hand on puck, one minute, Duffy, tripping again, one minute, and Nolan, misconduct, one minute. It was so crowded in the penalty box, the jailer had to move out.

The Rindge team was reduced to three men and Arlington, taking advantage of the penalties, charged in O'Brien taking a pass from Timmons, and scoring from their twenty foot mark, at 9:06.

Arlington left the ice with a comfortable 4-0 lead.

The Black and Gold icemen came to life in the third period scoring their one and only marker of the day as Timmons spent two minutes in the penalty box on two separate charges of tripping.

Fans Wait Ruling On Score Of Arlington-Brookline Hoop Tilt

Friday night the Arlington High school basketball squad met Brookline high at their court. Who won the game remains a mystery. The running score gave Arlington a victory, with a Don Swanson score in the last 30 seconds, 34 to 32.

The Arlington club left the court for the showers, and the officials were dressing, the floor was being waxed, when the scorers came in and said the game was a tie.

The running score, made up of the time clock, the Arlington scoring card, and the Brookline scoring card gave Arlington the game, 34-32.

The box score, which is the official score, registered the game as a tie.

The officials of the game, dressed to go home checked their rules and found that under such circumstances the game could be continued. However, the floor was being prepared for a dance and this was out of the question.

Coach George Lowder of Arlington, on checking the box score found that no credit had been given for the basket scored by Don Swanson, in the last 30 seconds.

Arlington officially protested the game to the league officials, and are awaiting their ruling.

It is reported there is a rule which states that in the event the officials have left the floor and cannot return, and there is a discrepancy in the score, the running score may be used as official. If this be true, then Arlington rightfully won the game.

Squires Bests Track Record

Speedy bill Squires, track star of Doc McCarthy's Arlington high school squad for the past two years, proved his metal again last Saturday by smashing his own record for the mile, 4:50, running it in 4:46-6.

Bill is only a junior at the high school and has one more year to set a mark which could remain intact for years. Track coaches throughout the league say he is the fastest thing they have seen in many a season.

Bobby Sullivan another junior won the 100 yard dash, another McCarthy protege for whom "Doc" has high hopes.

Paul Salisbury won the shotput and ran third in the 50 yard dash. Charlie Leveroni tied for first place in the high jump with a mark of 5 ft 8 in. and he ran second in the 45 yard hurdles.
